Companies that receive this prestigious honor are the best at having an impressive commitment to their employees and deliver exceptional human resource practices. An independent research firm assessed the winning companies and reviewed a number of key measures relative to other nationally recognized winners, such as employee compensation, benefits, recognition, engagement, and strategic company performance.

"The corporate culture here at FlexPrint is second to none. I am proud of our team and the environment that they have developed and maintained over the years," said Frank Gaspari, Chief Executive Officer of FlexPrint. "This award lets the business community know that FlexPrint is a great company to do business with and a great place for employees to showcase talents. I would like to publicly thank all of our employees that make FlexPrint so great."

"Profitability and stability is essential for businesses in today's economic climate. Companies that recognize that their employees are the key to their success achieve staying power. Our 2016 winners create their human resource standards to ensure employee satisfaction and they set standards for every business to aspire toward," said Jennifer Kluge, President and CEO of NABR. "We are proud to honor this year's winners."
